CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Living Room 306.4 km² is a city art festival on site-specific art. Living Room invites artists or artist groups to create an art work, installation or performance.

CITY ART FESTIVAL LIVING ROOM 306.4 KM²

- is an annual festival organized by the Living Room Art Society (Olohuone in Finnish)
- takes place from the 2nd to the 5th of June in Turku, a city situated on the southwest coast of Finland
- aspires to get people to participate and see everyday surroundings from a new point of view
- got its name from Turku's physical size. The total area of the city is 306.4 km²
- transforms the city into one big living room for four days
- has no entrance fees

SHADOW IS THE THEME FOR THE PROPOSALS 2010

How do shadows move, change and disappear in the city? What kinds of shapes have the shadows of thoughts? What kinds of colours can be seen in the shadows?

Proposals must include a filled application form and the applicant's CV. Deadline for of the proposals is the 24th of January, 2010.

Please submit your proposal by mail to:

Olohuone ry
Linnankatu 24
